Mrs. Tuttle's Will Probated.

The last will and testament of the late Mrs. Millie F. Tuttle was probated in the county court Friday. The instrument which bears the date of June 2, 1910, provides for the distribution to her six children, Miss Lizzie Tuttle, Mr. W. R. Tuttle, Mrs. Florence Eaton, Mrs. Jennie Perkins and Mrs. Minnie Perkins, and is as follows:

"I, Millie F. Tuttle, of the city of Paris, State of Kentucky, do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner and form following:

"First—I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently can be done.

"Second—It is my will, and I direct, that such of my household furniture and effects as shall be desired by my children shall pass to and become the property of each of them, according to such division as they shall arrange among themselves.

"Third—I direct that all my property, real and personal, excepting such personal property as is provided for in clause two hereof, shall be sold and converted into money as soon after my death as may seem best to my executor.

"Fourth—After the sale of the real and personal estate owned by me, as provided for in clause three hereof, and the payment of debts and funeral expenses as provided for in clause one hereto, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Lizzie Tuttle, the sum of $200.

"Fifth—It is my will, and I direct, that after satisfying the provisions herein above set forth, including the payment of the bequest of $200 to my daughter, Lizzie Tuttle, my estate shall be divided into six equal parts or shares.

"Of the first of said six shares, I give and bequeath to my son, James R. Tuttle, the sum of $1, and by agreement with him, and with his consent, I give and bequeath the remainder of said share to my daughter, Lizzie Tuttle. Of the other five shares remaining, I give and bequeath one each to my five children, viz: W. R. Tuttle, Florence Eaton, Jennie Perkins and Minnie Rummans.

"Sixth—I authorize, empower and direct my executor hereinafter named, to sell and dispose of my real and personal estate, as above provided for, and to make proper conveyance of title thereof to purchasers, and to make such sales publicly or privately as may seem to him best.

"Seventh—I nominate, constitute and appoint my son, W. R. Tuttle, at present of Woodford county, Ky., executor of this my last will and testament.

"Eighth—I hereby revoke all former or other wills and testamentary dispositions by me at any time heretofore made.

"In witness whereof I have hereinto subscribed my name, in the city of Paris, Ky., this 2nd day of June, 1910, in the presence of R. F. Clendenin and Hord Mann, whom I have requested to become attesting witnesses thereto.

"MILLIE F. TUTTLE.

"Witnesses:
"H. W. MANN,
"R. F. CLENDENIN."

As To Cost of Pensions.

So great have been the exaggerations of the vast amount of money the State would be called upon to pay in pensions that Governor McCreary said that he felt that the taxpayers and people of the State should know the truth. There have been but 212 applications for pensions to reach the Pension Board, so far. He said if every one of them is passed upon favorably it would take only $25,000 to pay them.

Pony Show.

The Pony show at the Bourbon Fair on the opening day promises to bring together a class of show ponies never before seen in a show ring. Attend the Bourbon Fair on the opening day and every other day—Sept. 3-7.
